Your future in business

Get a world-class education

Deakin Business School is in the top 1% of business schools globally by holding both AACSB and EQUIS accreditations. These prestigious accreditations are awarded to business schools that meet strict standards of quality, academic and professional excellence, and demonstrate a commitment to ongoing improvement and innovation in their courses, ensuring our graduates are employable worldwide.

Study sport with the best

Deakin has a long-standing reputation for excellence in sport education, which is why more students choose to study sport at Deakin than at any other Victorian university. We are currently ranked number one in Australia for sport management programs.¹

Access state-of-the-art facilities

Our high-tech teaching spaces include the cutting-edge Deakin Trading Room. Get hands-on trading experience with a model of an interbank trading floor and gain real-world insights into the foreign-exchange market. Find out more at deakin.edu.au/business/facilities.

Deakin Business School students gain real-world trading experience in the Deakin Trading Room at our Melbourne Burwood Campus.

Graduate with an employment advantage

EQUIS accreditation means a business school is globally recognised, internationally benchmarked and part of an ongoing quality improvement system enriched by involvement with a vibrant learning community.

As one of only 10 universities in Australia with this accreditation, you can confidently embark on your studies with the knowledge that the Deakin Business School has international relevance, and this offers an employment advantage.

Your future in business

Explore our industry connections

Our close ties with industry, government departments, professional associations and other educational providers mean that you get:

- courses matched to current industry best practice
- work placement opportunities
- a well-recognised and accredited qualification that stands out to employers.

Depending on units taken, commerce graduates are eligible to apply for admission to the following:

- Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA)
- Association of Financial Advisers (AFA)
- Australian Human Resources Institute (AHRI)
- Australian Marketing Institute (AMI)
- Certified Practising Accountants (CPA)
- Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand (CA ANZ)
- Financial Adviser Standards and Ethics Authority (FASEA)
- Financial Planning Association of Australia (FPA)
- Institute of Managers and Leaders (IML)
- Institute of Public Accountants (IPA).

Gain study credit through real-world learning

Get your career off to the best start by networking, and gaining skills and knowledge, through work experience, earning credit towards your degree at the same time. Professional work experience will develop your employability; students with placements and internships are highly sought-after by employers. Many of our business courses offer work placements in organisations in Australia and overseas.¹

Industry placements give you an opportunity to:

- apply and consolidate knowledge gained in your course
- cultivate professional competencies
- experience workplace culture
- explore career options relevant to your study discipline
- develop professional networks.

International study programs and industry placements are not just about experiencing a new culture or workplace, but increasingly important in positioning graduates for future success.

Move your career forward

By developing important skills in critical thinking, analysis, investigation and evidence-based decision-making, your business acumen can open up employment opportunities in just about every industry.

Deakin students attending faculty-led study program in China.

Tailor your studies to your interests

How you study business at Deakin depends on your interests and career aspirations. With a Bachelor of Commerce degree, you can specialise in one of nine majors which reflect traditional business skills, and have the option of doing a minor in one of 16 areas of specialisation. Or choose a Bachelor of Business which offers eight majors in contemporary business areas. You can also choose from our focused specialist degrees: Bachelor of Business Analytics, Bachelor of Human Resource Management (Psychology), Bachelor of Marketing (Psychology), Bachelor of Property and Real Estate, Bachelor of Sport Development or Bachelor of Business (Sport Management).

Gain international experience

Connect with the world through faculty-led programs, short-term study programs, international internships and volunteering. Students looking for a longer and more immersive experience can take part in one of our exchange programs too.¹

Deakin Business School students have walked the Great Wall of China, paced the pavements in Paris, played cricket in Delhi, gone behind the scenes at Disneyland, and offered business advice to local government in Japan.

These experiences enhance your global employability skills in areas like teamwork, critical thinking and intercultural communication, while immersing you in a new cultural and learning environment.

In 2020 students participated in a Virtual Global Work Integrated Learning Program, offering the opportunity to gain international consultancy experiences remotely. Working in teams, students collaborated with a range of cross-sector host organisations from countries including the UK, US, China, India and Malaysia, developing solutions to challenging problems while enhancing their own professional experience and intercultural fluency to get ahead in the employment market.

Enjoy all that university has to offer

We want you to have a meaningful learning experience; university is important, but it should be fun too. Deakin Business School supports a range of clubs and societies, including Deakin Commerce Society, Deakin Law Students Society, Deakin Entrepreneurs Collective, and many more.

We'll support you every step of the way

Take advantage of our Student Mentor Program, which helps students transition to university through study skills sessions, exam preparation and a range of other services.

You can also access our career centre, DeakinTALENT, and use its programs and services to research different career options, hone your interview skills, look for casual work while you study, or find a graduate job.

Disciplines

Your dream course starts here. Take a look through our disciplines (also known as study areas) to choose your area of expertise. Knowing which discipline you're interested in helps career advisers find the best course for you. Corresponding courses are featured in the following pages, so you can learn more about what you'll study, available work experience opportunities and the types of careers you could pursue. Once you have chosen a course, you can then pick which discipline to specialise in within that course. Visit deakin.edu.au for detailed discipline and course information, including a description of the units within each degree.

Accounting

Complex global markets and reporting requirements mean accounting is an increasingly dynamic and exciting profession. Accountants are finance and information specialists who inform business decision-making within a wide range of organisations. Businesses and individuals rely on accountants to assess their financial situation, prepare reports and give advice on financial dealings.

Business analytics

Use technology to analyse, present and support decision-making using 'big data' held by an organisation. Business analytics looks at the way businesses structure their information architecture, and the ways people and organisations can use technology to improve their processes and workflows, and inform how to innovate their products or services.

Business and digital communications

Manage and coordinate relationships between organisations, agencies and the public through effective internal and external communications. With a focus on ethical and sustainable research and practices, build key knowledge and skills in brand management, content marketing, social media, strategic public relations, and the field of marketing communications.

Commerce

Commerce provides a solid foundation in business studies. Deakin offers a variety of majors, from accounting through to marketing and international trade. If you're after a career in business, a degree in commerce could be your first smart business decision.

Economics

Learn about the production, distribution and consumption of wealth. Economics is a social science based on human behaviour that helps you enhance all aspects of business. Gain business acumen and learn to adapt to various policy environments. Develop quantitative and analytical skills that are highly valued by employers and can complement your future career path.

Entrepreneurship and innovation

Develop skills and strategic tools, and benefit from work-integrated learning experience to prepare you for starting your own business, running a family-business, becoming a social entrepreneur, or to help existing organisations to launch and manage new products and enter into new markets.

Event management

Work in diverse fields like government, education and the not-for-profit sector. You'll develop a comprehensive set of skills that include project management, marketing, communication, innovation and planning for unique events.

Finance

A career in finance can open doors to almost any industry. Learn about the operations of financial markets and institutions, and how decision-making processes are administered where uncertainty is involved.

Finance deals with investment, payout decisions of firms, the effects of interest rates and risks on the pricing of assets, and the structure and operations of financial markets and institutions.

Financial planning

Financial planners have the necessary breadth and depth of financial skills and knowledge to help people achieve financial success. Innovative and lateral in their thinking, financial planners are up-to-date with the latest changes and are committed to providing sound, independent and ethical financial advice to their clients.

Food and agribusiness

The agricultural sector occupies a significant place in world economies. Agribusiness companies and major financial institutions are some of the organisations looking for graduates with critical business capabilities like resource management, agritech, agribusiness and skills in managing global climate challenges across the agricultural supply chain.

Human resource management

An understanding of how to manage human resources is critical for all managers in all industries. Human resource management covers recruitment, selection, training and development, workplace diversity, employee relations, performance and change management and remuneration. Develop invaluable counselling, mediation and negotiation skills that will stand you in good stead in any field you enter in the future.

Information systems

Work in a globally significant field where you'll implement cutting-edge technologies to solve business problems. If you have a passion for new technologies, business analytics and eBusiness, a career in information systems may be for you.

International trade and business

Gain the skills, knowledge and expertise to excel in a growing and changing global environment. From marketing and strategy through to international relations and law, a career in international trade and business could take you anywhere in the world.

Management

Managers drive organisational culture, performance and results by leading, supporting and transforming organisations and their employees. Study management to formally develop the skills required to be an effective leader through a progressive program of theory and practice.

Marketing

Marketing strategically and creatively adds value to the customer experience, building a relationship between consumers and sellers. Our courses cover a range of subjects, including brand management, consumer behaviour and digital media.

Be rewarded for your hard work

A Deakin scholarship is more than just a financial boost. It is our chance to acknowledge your accomplishments and reward your hard work, setting you on the path to success at university.

Our extensive scholarship program includes three key scholarships:

- Vice-Chancellor's Academic Excellence Scholarship
- Deakin Scholarship for Excellence
- Deakin Student Support Scholarship.

We also offer a range of donor and government-funded scholarships. Each is unique with differing criteria, rewarding aspiring students from diverse backgrounds.

Disciplines

Deakin students work with their peers to build networks and solve real-world business problems.

Organisational psychology

Organisational psychologists apply science to the workplace to improve employee performance and wellbeing. You could work with organisations, teams and individual employees to devise strategies to recruit, motivate, develop, change and inspire your workforce.

People management

People management is one of the fastest-growing fields of professional employment. This study area provides skills and understanding of the critical dimensions required to successfully manage people. Develop an understanding of strategic human resource development and management, organisational behaviour, change management, workplace counselling and negotiation, and an understanding of employment relations.

Project management

Join a growing, dynamic profession that involves planning, coordinating, costing and evaluating projects of all sizes, as well as managing the people and risks involved. In a globalised economy, project management is central to developing and delivering new products, services and infrastructure, as well as implementing new techniques and processes to facilitate change.

Property and real estate

The property industry is one of the world's largest employment areas. Deakin's unique property and real estate course leads to careers with long-term employment and rewarding salaries. With strong industry links, and international demand for graduates, studies focus on investment, property development, property valuation, market analysis and property economics, with popular specialisations in sustainability or business disciplines.

Psychology

Combine psychology principles from complementary disciplines in marketing or human resource management. A dual expertise in psychology and business disciplines provides graduates with a competitive advantage as you enter employment.

Retail and supply chain management

Retail managers for the 21st century understand the retail process from sourcing and retail, to brand management and evaluating consumers. The field of retailing is still growing but the impact of worldwide competition, and short product lifecycles, makes retailing a challenging and dynamic field that needs practitioners who can operate in a fast-changing environment.

Sport development

Study sport development for its unique focus on three areas: sport management and marketing, coaching and exercise, and sport science. It centres on the development of sport and community development through sport, by both increasing participation in sport and developing pathways to attract, retain and nurture sport participation.

Sport management

Learn to manage the business of sport organisations that deliver sport, and the organisations that support them. A degree in sport management helps students to become sport managers who can lead sport organisations in a range of activities, including the development and management of professional sport competitions, major events, and community programs that encourage participation. Sport management graduates work with organisations that support sport, like sport promoters and player agents, sporting goods manufacturers and retailers, and facility management.

Sustainability and development

The world is bracing for a new normal involving harsher and frequent weather uncertainties with unpredictable costs. The sustainability and development major is built on this broad theme with opportunities for students to gain a practical understanding of the interactions between the economy and the environment, and how to propose solutions and approaches that can facilitate a sustainable co-existence of both.

Kaizer Rodrigues

Bachelor of Commerce (Business Analytics) student

Choosing between business and commerce?

In both degrees you will study foundational units to give you a well-rounded understanding of business and the skills to navigate the jobs of today and the careers of the future.

The Bachelor of Commerce requires strong problem-solving and analytical skills and provides graduates with specialised knowledge of the organisational functions of a business. The course offers graduates a pathway to be recognised by professional organisations such as: Certified Practising Accountants (CPA), Australian Human Resources Institute (AHRI) and Australian Marketing Institute (AMI).

The Bachelor of Business has a stronger focus on a range of skills and knowledge outside of the traditional analytical organisational functions of a business. This is the degree of choice for those with an entrepreneurial spirit and an eye to becoming a business owner.

To find out more about the differences between these degrees, view our online explanatory animation at deakin.yt/business-or-commerce.

Inspiration for life, learning and career

Visit this.deakin.edu.au to uncover unique stories about Deakin and explore different perspectives on study, career and self-improvement.

Deakin understands that evidencing and articulating your capabilities is vital to gaining opportunities. Deakin Hallmarks are prestigious University awards that recognise students' outstanding achievements and capabilities that are key to employment success. After graduating, they offer students the opportunity to differentiate themselves to employers. To find out more visit deakin.edu.au/hallmarks, including how Hallmarks are awarded.
